WE'VE A STORY TO TELL TO THE NATIONS

The lyrics of this old hymn still speak to our deepest needs in America.

*We've a story to tell to the nations,
that shall turn their hearts to the right,
a story of truth and mercy,
a story of peace and light,
a story of peace and light.*

*For the darkness shall turn to dawning,
and the dawning to noonday bright;
and Christ's great kingdom shall come on earth,
the kingdom of love and light.*

Lyrics by H. Ernest Nichol, 1862-1928

LOOKING FORWARD TO 2017

Dear Readers,

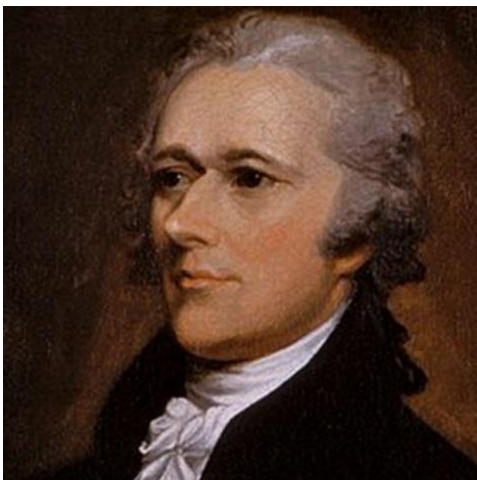

As we look forward to 2016 we sense the Lord's encouragement to be faithful in His calling to: "provide a hub which identifies where the Holy Spirit is working in the hearts of the American people and organizations, and to speak on topics and concerns that many churches and organizations are unwilling to address."

We have committed in faith to publish monthly newsletters in 2017. Also we will continue to expand on the Biblical worldview of the Founding era of America, when it truly could be said, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord" (Psalm 33:12), and the vital lessons this foundation still provides for our nation today.

We are always encouraged when you forward our newsletters to your friends and contacts.

God Bless,
Chris J. Fenner, President

HAMILTON AND THE SUPREME COURT

Hamilton: An American Musical is a smash hit on Broadway. The musical is about the life of American Founding Father Alexander Hamilton, and at the end of Act 1 the musical notes that Hamilton enlisted James Madison and John Jay to help him write The Federalist Papers.

The 85 Federalist Papers were published in 1787 and 1788 to promote ratification of The Constitution of the United States, and to show the general population that their rights were protected. Also, the Papers set out to show that the role of the federal government was limited, and the limits were safeguarded by checks and balances between the three branches of the new form of government.

Limits on the Supreme Court

Alexander Hamilton wrote Federalist Paper #78 to clarify the role of the Judiciary branch of the government, especially the Supreme Court. In this Paper he emphasized that the judiciary branch of government should only interpret law and NOT be tempted to
